Additionally, many of the neighborhood's inviting boutiques and galleries will be open for business.

Foodies will enjoy the plethora of dining options at the festival. Whether you choose to dine on tasty gourmet goodies from the dozens of fine food vendors within the festival, or you visit the established cafés, bistros and bars along Union Street, including Perry's and more, there is something for every kind of appetite. Once again, the festival will host Craft Beer and Wine Tasting Pavilions. Attendees will be able to purchase Tasting Tickets online prior to the event through the website and on-site and the entry booths to the Pavilions.
