The Fisherman's Wharf Community Benefit District is proud to present the 5th Annual Wharf Fest on Saturday, October 21, 2017 from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The festival is being produced by Steven Restivo Event Services, Inc., a longtime producer of major events in San Francisco.

The festival is a free celebration that showcases Fisherman's Wharf, San Francisco's historic waterfront district. Festival goers will enjoy a chowder competition, activations around the crab wheel, and more.

RESTAURANTS

There is NO FEE to participate in the Chowder Competition, but registration is mandatory. The Chowder Competition will take place from 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. and only Fisherman's Wharf district restaurants are allowed to participate.

You will be required to cook your chowder at the event (pre-dicing and preparation is allowed). Two awards are given out, a People's Choice Award and a Judges Choice Award. The official judging will take place from 1:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. You can only choose 1 type of chowder for the official judging. A minimum of 6-8 gallons of chowder per restaurant will be needed for the judges and the public who purchase sampling tickets. You are welcome to sell bowls of chowder during the sampling event and until 5:00 p.m., however you would need to increase the amount of chowder you make to ensure there is enough for those who paid for sampling tickets. New this year: If you do not serve the chowder at your restaurant that you are sampling, we will need to create a disclaimer for you.
